

Reading Section

I would like you to read an English book or your choice every weekday Monday-Friday for at least 15 minutes. Then write at least 3 sentences about what you read: what you feel, how you think, anything. Lined paper is provided below. Please complete your journaling there.

Try to make reading fun. If you do not understand 5 words on a page, then that book is too difficult - get a new one. At any time you can change your book or just read something different if you want to.

What are your interests?

- Genre: mystery, SF, fantasy, non-fiction, history, movie
- Subject: baseball, spaceships, princesses
- Author: Isaac Asimov, Alexander Dumas
- Recommendation: friend, author
- No comic books, magazines, newspapers

Jeff _____ 's Journal for the book: The Voyages of Sinbad the Sailor (name) (book title)

(6/5/2020) I started reading Sinbad the Sailor today. He goes on 7 voyages. Today was his first one. I didnt read much today - I didn't have time, but it was fun. There's a map on the first page.

(6/6) Sinbad started his trip. I hope someday I can see Baghdad. There must be a lot of sand there. Other places I want to see are India and china. Oh, today in the reading Sinbad went to an island, but it was acually a big fish! Wow, that's crazy!

(6/7) Oh my gosh, poor Sinbad. He goes from bad to worse. The island is a fish, and he gets kicked out to sea. I am scared of the sea. I hope I never get lost out at sea.
